

StAR 2018 Annual Rotational Moulding Conference

January 19 - 21, New Delhi, India

We are proud to announce the 14th annual rotational moulding conference of StAR to be held again at Hotel Crowne Plaza Okhla in New Delhi, the beautiful and historic capital city of India, from Jan 19 to 21, 2018. What a great way to start the year for the rotomoulding industry in India!

Programme & Events

Taking cognizance of rapid technological transformation of the rotomoulding industry in India, the conference presentations will bring together knowhow about key elements for producing quality engineered products with consistency and reliability at competitive costs. Seminars on the first day will enhance knowledge in materials, secondary processes, and automation. As always, a global panel of speakers will generously share their knowledge and experience in their respective areas of expertise. Of course, and not to forget -- the global networking opportunity. The almost decade and half experience of designing programmes for the complete spectrum of conference attendees will once again ensure unity in diversity – a thematic programme with a variety of topics around it.

Some of the landmark development schemes currently buoying up Indian economic activity will find an echo in some of the subjects which some of the presentations are likely to touch.

Day 1 Seminars: choice of concurrent sessions

Day 2 & 3 Conference Presentations: 15 to 20 topics covered

Trade Show

Annual trade show during the conference has gained in popularity over the recent years with attendees. Exhibitors from India and global companies display & discuss their latest products & services to the industry. The Trade show opens on day 1 – and runs alongside the conference on all three days, during the breaks and other times when conference sessions are off. Fifteen leading supplier companies, Indian and international, displayed at the 2017 Jaipur Conference. Suppliers Networking Dinner Reception at the end of day 1, allows making & renewing friendships and valuable networking.

Social Events

Poolside ambience under the Delhi winter sky is a great setting for the above-mentioned Suppliers Networking Dinner Reception on the evening of the first day. There is not only a nip in the air but also a nip in the enjoyment with great atmosphere for networking when food, drinks and live music complement each other. They get just right for an occasion of great camaraderie as a result, setting the tone for the rest of the conference.

The Gala Dinner on the second day promises a great evening of entertainment and festivities. With an entire restaurant and more of the hotel for space, thematic décor and appropriate entertainment the evening is planned to keep you on a high. Culinary delights emanating from the Theme of the Evening are sure to tickle your taste buds.

Spouse activities, Customised Delhi sightseeing and post conference tours in India's main tourism hub can also be made available per individual choices.
